75 Red Buckets of Surprises!

“ I have worked at Eagle Railcar for 16 years and have held several roles. By far, the best role was overseeing our paint shop operations. Out of all our coatings vendors, Carboline has the most knowledgeable tech service reps and a sales team that genuinely cares about their customer’s needs. If we ever had a problem with a coating or a question about the specifications, all I had to do was call Doug Cook, Dan Rushing, or John Vonberg, and we would be back up and going in no time. What’s nice about these gentlemen also is they will call us every so often just to check-in, see how things are going, and make sure we have everything we need. ”
